1. off turn to 7 Note Galaxy the of owners Warned phone their.

2. phone stop The shipping company the will flagship also.

3. to phones many so causing is what into investigation An fire catch.

4. Many exploded batteries their when flames into burst.

5. new This credibility company's the damages further episode.

6. how will much cost the Now latest predicting trouble.

7. company the could phone discontinue The producing.

8. be it The would if this exports damaged did country's.

9. impact the what tell can't We term long the in be will.

10. is the its It that recover image urgent company brand.
Number these lines in the correct order.

( ) reports of the device catching fire. The company will also stop shipping the flagship phone to

(1) Samsung, the South Korean tech giant, has warned owners of the Galaxy Note 7 to turn off their phone after more

( ) interfere, but if they do scrap the model, it will have a negative impact on

( ) of the exploding phones are those that had batteries replaced in September and were deemed to be safe.

( ) now we can't tell what the impact will be in the long term. It's up to the company and the government cannot

( ) exploded. This new episode further damages the company's credibility as many

( ) minister Yoo Il-ho has warned that the country's exports would be damaged if it did this. He said: "Right

( ) reporting that the company could discontinue producing the phone. However, South Korea's finance

( ) exports." The Korea Times said: "It is urgent that the company recover its brand

( ) stores. The device, launched in August, was set to rival Apple's iPhone. Samsung engineers must now conduct

( ) a recall of 2.5 million phones in September after many burst into flames when their batteries

( ) Industry analysts are now predicting how much the latest trouble will cost the company. South Korean media is

( ) an investigation into what is causing so many phones to catch fire. Samsung had already been hit following

( ) image and the only way to do this is to place quality and customer satisfaction above anything else."